

Board Member Code of Conduct

The Scriptural standards for Church Leaders can be found in:

- 1 Timothy 3:1-7
 - Titus 1:6-9
 - Hebrews 13:17
 - Matthew 20:25-28
- I will maintain the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, conducting myself in an ethical, honest, and exemplary manner.

 - I will fully support the church's vision and mission.

 - I will maintain strict confidentiality regarding private and sensitive board matters, refraining from disclosing such information to unauthorized parties.

 - I will treat my pastors, fellow board members, church staff, and congregation with respect and compassion.

 - I will prepare thoroughly in advance of all board meetings.

 - I will actively listen to diverse perspectives and thoughts, seeking first to understand before being understood.

 - I will strive for unity with my fellow board members, putting the interests of the body above personal preferences.

 - I will base my decisions on what is best for the whole church, not special interests or my own personal preferences.

 - I will support and uphold the decisions of the board, even if I disagree, and refrain from undermining the board's authority.

 - I will regularly pray for God's wisdom, discernment and guidance in fulfilling my duties as a church board member.

 - I will strive to model godliness, spiritual maturity and Christ-like character in all aspects of my service on the board.
